

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT:

Field Engineer

OVERVIEW:

The Nicholson Construction Company Operations Department welcomes your interest! Our goal is to provide engineering input and support to the operations groups within the company.

The role of a Field Engineer is to provide technical, quality control and administrative support to Superintendents and Project Managers on jobsites within all Nicholson Construction Company district offices. In this position your responsibilities will include:

- Ensuring that all company and OSHA safety regulations are met and enforced; bottom line responsibility for safety on site.
- Completing field QC tests and prepare/manage QC and production records.
- Ordering materials, write purchase orders, and track inventory.
- Running small work crews (technical tasks like water testing, load testing, etc.).
- Researching and resolving drawing interpretation problems, conflicts, interferences and errors, update "as built" drawings.
- Preparing drawing and sketches to support construction work.
- Assisting in preparation of change order documentation and claim analysis including any supporting estimates, change orders and estimates.
- Ensuring all installation follows company QC Manual.
- Preparing RFI's and Perform field surveys.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Four year engineering or related degree.
- Basic knowledge (0-3 years) of construction equipment/techniques, drawings, specifications, building materials, surveying, design, or geotechnical work.
- Understands basic principles of design and model assumptions.
- Has sufficient skill with MS Word and Excel to make logical reports, data reduction, and graphs.
- Can functionally use AutoCAD Lite.
- Has basic survey and layout skills using a level and Total Station instruments.
- Has ability to implement QC plans.

ADDITIONAL QUALIFICATIONS:

- 10-hour OSHA safety course.
- 40-hour Hazmat course.
- First aid and CPR certified.

If you are interested in applying for this position, send your resume and salary requirements to careers@nicholsonconstruction.com or fax to 412.221.4548, Attn: HR Department.

EEO/AA Employer and a Drug Free Workplace